Other rules:

- Teams may name a maximum of 20 (U13), 18 (U12) and 16 (U11) players for the event, named on a team sheet with the jersey number, name and birthdate of the player.
- All teams must submit the team sheet to the organizer prior to the opening match. This counts as the official list, but the teams don't have to name the starting players before the games, considering that we play friendly games without tournament winners and awards. We only need it for the documentation of the event and in case of any doubts from the opponent. We kindly ask you to send it to the following address at least the day before the event: csapko.zoltan@bhfc.hu
- Teams must bring two kits of different colours to every match. Teams must agree in advance on the kits they wear for each match. If an agreement on kit colours cannot be reached, then the team named second should wear a different colour vest
- Players must possess personal identification (passport, ID card) which they shall hand over only if there are any doubts from the other team's officials.
- In case of a red card the player should leave the ongoing game, but if there was no serious unsportsmanlike behaviour, he can play for the next game according to the aim of the event.
- All matches shall be officiated by referees from the MLSZ (Hungarian Football Association). Matches shall be officiated in accordance with FIFA regulations
- Trial players can participate in each team

Organisation:

- Entry fee: none
- Services:
 - o Organisation and referees
 - o Mineral water at the changing rooms
 - o Meal after the event
- Insurance: every team should take care of the insurances of their own players
